

I protest the relaxing of the Broadcast-Newspaper Cross-Ownership Rule, which is now being considered by the FCC. It is already apparent that the free press, as we know it, is in trouble. Increasing the monopoly of the press by a few will result in less objective news and more of the one-sided "news" that we now get. This is just another assault on the 1st Amendment right of a "free press".